A HALF CENTURY OF EXCELLENCE

In 1971, Exceptional Parent was first published by a dedicated group of healthcare professionals and educators led by Maxwell J. Schleifer, PhD. Throughout its 50 year history, EP has chronicled the challenges and triumphs experienced by the special needs community, providing unequalled coverage for families and professionals involved in the care and development of people with disabilities and special healthcare needs. EP provides practical advice, emotional support and the most up-to-date educational information for special needs families. EP’s mission is to improve the quality of life for all people with chronic life-long conditions, as well as the physicians, allied health care and educational professionals who are involved in their care and development.

THE WAY FORWARD

The EP Guide: Navigating Special Needs Resources is an indispensable source of information for those newly diagnosed with disabilities, genetic disorders and other conditions. Families and professionals are sure to value this resource and will refer to it continuously throughout the year! An amazing advertising opportunity!
A BROADER VISION

Exceptional Parent Magazine addresses physical, emotional and intellectual conditions across the lifespan, using a multimedia approach. Exceptional Parent believes that disabilities are conditions and not disease states, and its focus is on improving the quality of life for those impacted by these conditions.
